I. TITLE:

Intermediate Stock Seat Equitation

II. CATALOG DESCRIPTION:

Designed for the Intermediate rider in their first or second year of riding and for riders that are considered safe to ride an unfamiliar horse in a group at a canter. A higher degree of proficiency at a walk, jog, and a lope is required more than in Basic Stock Seat Equitation. Emphasis is placed on learning suppling exercises for horse and rider in addition to developing a competent rider with proper Stock Seat Equitation skills. Weekend participation in Intercollegiate Horse Show Association horse shows is mandatory. Weekend riding clinics will be held and participation is expected. Prerequisites: AGR 106, unless approved by instructor.

III. PURPOSE:

To supply students with the ability and knowledge that will enable them to show a horse in Intermediate Stock Seat Equitation class, reinforcing the development of quiet and soft hand, deep seat and solid leg position. In addition, the rider will develop mental and physical skills that will enable them to correctly perform various Intermediate level Stock Seat patterns on and off the rail. Riders will perfect techniques that will enhance their ability to accurately cue their horse for proper right or left leads. All horses used at this level are more difficult to ride or school than horses used with the Basic Stock Seat Equitation.

XV. MSU SCHOOL OF AGRICULTURE CELL PHONE POLICY

The School of Agriculture recognizes that in today’s world cell phones are a familiar and often necessary form of communication for students.

It shall be the policy of the School that no cell phone usage shall be allowed in class and/or labs without the prior consent of the course instructor. This shall include verbal calling, incoming calls, email, text messaging, and use of cell phone calculators on tests and quizzes.

Cell phones must be kept off and out of sight (i.e. secured to a person’s belt or kept in a bag or purse away from desks and lab counters).

Should a student’s cell phone be visible, ring, or other form of unauthorized usage that is interruptive to the class or lab, the student may be asked to leave class and not return for that class/lab period.

Upon prior consent of the instructor, a student may obtain permission to have their phone on in case of an emergency or in critical family situations.

This policy also includes pagers and other electronic equipment such as blackberries and/or computers/laptops.
