(Revised: April 9, 2004)

Thank you for applying for admission to Murray State University. Our enrollment of over 10,000 students allows for small classes and personal attention at the right price. Consistently ranked among the South's leading regional universities by U.S. News and World Report.

So that we can better evaluate the effectiveness of our efforts to attract students such as yourself, we are conducting a survey of all students that have applied for admission using the On-Line Application.
