

MURRAY
STATE UNIVERSITY

Office of Undergraduate Research and Scholarly Activity
College of Science, Engineering and Technology
College of Humanities and Fine Arts
Department of History

presents ...

The Prince of Evolution

By Dr. Lee Alan Dugatkin

November 16, 2011 • 7:30 p.m.
Mason Hall Auditorium

FREE ADMISSION

> Book Signing to Follow

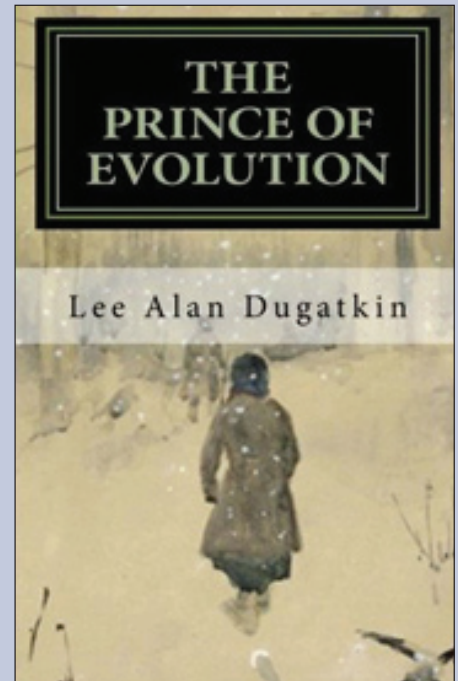

Dr. Lee Alan Dugatkin, Distinguished University Scholar and professor of biology at the University of Louisville, has published eight books, including the popular Cheating Monkeys, Citizen Bees: The Nature of Cooperation in Animals and Humans, The Altruism Equation and The Prince of Evolution. His work has drawn considerable media attention, garnering full-length articles in The New York Times, The Washington Post, USA Today and The New Republic.

To learn more about The Prince of Evolution, visit <http://campus.murraystate.edu/services/URSA/index.html>.

Questions? Contact 809.3192

Equal education and employment opportunities M/F/D, AA employer

In The Prince of Evolution, Lee Alan Dugatkin introduces the reader to Russian Prince Peter Kropotkin — one of the world's first international celebrities. In England Kropotkin was known as a brilliant scientist, famous for his work on animal and human cooperation, but Kropotkin's fame in continental Europe centered more on his role as a founder of anarchism. In the United States, he pursued both passions.

Tens of thousands of people followed Prince Peter during two speaking tours that took him around America. In The Prince of Evolution, Dugatkin will make the reader stop and take pause to consider what this one remarkable man did to try and make the world a more cooperative place.